

Segall Bryant & Hamill Names Shaun Nicholson as Principal

CHICAGO, IL – August 15, 2017 – Segall Bryant & Hamill, a Chicago-based investment firm serving individuals and institutional clients, announced that Senior Portfolio Manager Shaun Nicholson has been named a Principal of the firm effective immediately. Mr. Nicholson is the lead portfolio manager for SBH’s Small Cap Value Concentrated strategy and the Co-portfolio manager for SBH’s Small Cap Value strategy.

“We are pleased to be able to bring Shaun into our Principal group,” said Phil Hildebrandt, CEO of SBH. “One of the most beneficial aspects of our relationship with Thoma Bravo has been our ability to bring key value contributors like Shaun into an ownership position.”

Mr. Nicholson has been with SBH since 2011. In addition to his portfolio management duties, he is responsible for research related to materials, autos/transport, industrials, regional banks and energy within the Small Cap strategies. He has been in the investment industry since 2002, including positions at Kennedy Capital Management, U.S. Bancorp Asset Management and The Boeing Company. Mr. Nicholson earned a B.S. from Seton Hall University and earned an MBA from the University of Missouri-St. Louis.

“Shaun has been instrumental in our research process and in making productivity enhancements to our team,” said Mark Dickherber, CFA, CPA, the head of SBH’s Small Cap Equity team. “He is fully committed to our investment philosophy and continues to challenge the rest of the team to make us better investors. In addition, as a firm Principal, Shaun will provide an independent voice to help shape SBH as we continue to grow and evolve.”

Mr. Nicholson joins fellow Small Cap portfolio managers Mark Dickherber, CFA, CPA, and Jeff Paulis, CFA as Principals of the firm. As of June 30, 2017, the SBH Small Cap team managed more than $1 billion in assets.
